SCUMBAGS AT WORK.....

No doubt those responsible for carrying out this despicable crime are feeling very proud of themselves safe in the knowledge that they have effectively made this brave lady whose only crime is fight for the rights of all park home owners to a fair deal, homeless and robbed of her life savings. It is very clear from this theft that certain unscrupulous elements of this parks industry are intent on suppressing very effort made by those who seek to clean up this often corrupt industry which hides its misdeeds behind the glossy façade of park home sites. Who, by viewing the neat rows of homes on usually heavily manicured sites outwardly portraying a scene of peace and tranquillity, would ever suspect, that carefully hidden beneath all that is often an atmosphere of fear, anxiety and helplessness, strictly maintained by the Unscrupulous park owner (UPO's) by means of intimidation and harassment. This above crime is an powerful example of just what lengths these greedy and heartless rogues will sink too to protect their ill- gotten gains. Rip the old buggers off for every penny they have is the UPO's attitude towards their residents. Something for everyone to consider if buying a park home.

Appeal: Home for Sonia McColl OBE - Leasehold Knowledge Partnership

Sonia McColl OBE has received death threats while campaigning for justice for park home owners. Now her own home has been stolen. She believes the theft was motivated

Home for Sonia Appeal

Today the Leasehold Knowledge Partnership is launching an appeal for Sonia McColl OBE, the founder of the Park Home Park Home Owners Justice campaign.

Her park home was stolen more than a week ago while at a haulage depot before being delivered to plot on property belonging to relatives.

She was moving home after a succession of intimidating incidents, including menacing phone calls and even night-time visits to her home.

The issues of park homes and leasehold properties are very similar, and concerns same landlord and tenant laws.

Mrs McColl will be addressing the All Party Parliamentary Group on leasehold reform this afternoon.

LKP prods media to cover theft of Sonia McColl OBE's park home

Today we have at last got the theft of the mobile home of Sonia McColl OBE into the national media, with a brilliant report by Melanie Abbot on BBC R4 You & Yours. The item can be heard at below at 19.22, and LKP thanks Melanie Abbot for this report, and many others concerning leasehold ... Continue reading

It outrages every sense of justice that a woman in her seventies who has give much of her time to others, and whose work has been recognised by the stat simply have her home stolen – almost certainly at the behest of interests of w has been critical.

To date, LKP has more than £10,000 pledged.

Please donate generously to this appeal. You can do so here:
